Big Midget Race Is Scheduled With 15 Cars Entering

Plenty of fun and entertainment is on tap for fans who see the Midget races this Saturday night, according to Carol Marler, president of the Elba Club.

Marler states this should be one of the best races of the season as cars from Panama City, Dothan, and Niceville, Florida will be here, with some of the fastest cars in the South. Some of the cars in the Elba club have been put in top condition as they will be up against some stiff competition.

This race is a special event providing entertainment for visitors who will be in Elba attending the Veteran Reunion sponsored by the Elba American Legion, Post No. 42. Races will be over at 9 p.m. in order that spectators may attend the big dance at the Elba National Guard Armory. Marler said. From Panama City will be Gib Walker, noted to have one of the fastest cars in the South and also with him will be Clinton Walker, with his record win over Dothan's ace, Johnny Henderson.

From Elba will be Carol Marler with a complete re-built racer; Wayne Marler, who is usually well up front with his car 22. Earl Simmon and Mack Moore with cars ready to go. The Parrish and Brooks Special and Norman Johns with his car the RR, who are also ready for their chance at the trophies; and Jack Padgett with car 90 with good speed.

Time trials will begin at 7 p.m. and races at 7:45 p.m. Approximately 15 cars are expected to be on hand.

Construction of the Elba General Hospital ran into an unexpected delay last week when the Hospital Board rejected all bids because they were found to be figures far beyond the planned outlay and architects were instructed to draw new plans to scale down the total cost.

Six general contractors presented bids which were opened Thursday, last week, in the Elba Court House in the presence of members of the board, of which Drexel Cook is chairman, and the hospital architects, Burnmaster and Beale, of Mobile.

Clay Dean, chief of the hospital planning division of the Alabama Health Department, and his assistant, Fred Beacham, were present.

The lowest bid submitted was by Dawson and Andrews, general contractors of Montgomery, for $540,675.00. The Hospital Board and members of the State Health Department figured that this amount, together with the cost of necessary equipment such as furniture, X-ray, and architectural fees, would run the total cost to a minimum of $602,000.00 while plans were to spend $410,000.00 with the cost borne by the city from its 1 per cent sales tax, with participation by the state and federal governments.

The Hospital Board rejected a resolution rejecting all bids and instructing the architects to proceed with dispatch to re-design the hospital plan in accordance with recommendations of the health department to scale down the cost.

Changes Altered

After a conference, it was decided that alterations could be made in the plans by being the cost of construction within funds allocated without materially affecting the efficiency and attractiveness of the hospital.

Bids submitted were as follows: Connor Bros. $455,000; Bufala Concrete Co. $488,500; Mid-South Contractors, $488,000; Henderson, Black, A. and D. $465,837; Andrian Development Co. $506,100.

The unit still has a top rating, Roach said. "They just returned from their assignment and they had a superior rating. That's the highest rating a unit can get."

There was laughter and joking. Elba Mayor Dozier Roberts welcomed the group to his city, told of a former member of the battery who was now retired.

He noticed the minnows in the bucket were getting lively, Roberts said, and decided to put a fresh one in the bucket. "As soon as I dropped that hook in the water," the angler said, "the float went straight down. I pulled in a four-pound trout and the minnow had him by the neck."

There was a moment of nostalgia when Claude Clark, former first sergeant, called the roll of the 114th Ammunition Train from a photostatic copy of the original roll he used on Sept. 28, 1922. A scattered hand in the room answered the roll and stood up in the audience.

A moment of sadness came when Coffee County Probate Judge J. Oscar English called the roll of the 43 men who have died.

Among the members of the Elba High School Band young faces flinched occasionally when a name was read out, and other band members looked at the one among their number whose father or older brother was dead.

"It seems that most of my duties are painful," Judge English told the audience.

Former members of the unit came from all parts of the United States and foreign countries to attend the reunion at the Ft. Charles L. Rowce Armory here.

Pelch Chapman came 1460

miles from New York State. Maj. James Elliott Reeves traveled from Okinawa.

The main program of the reunion which started at 10 a.m. ended with a lunch at the Armory served by the American Legion and its auxiliary.

The afternoon was devoted to visiting with old friends. A dance was held at the Armory at 8 p.m.

The unit was called into federal service in November, 1910. The 117th Field Artillery was part of the 31st (Dixie) Division.

There were proud moments as the speakers on the platform pointed to the units' outstanding combat record in Italy, Austria and Germany.

Losses Kept Down

The battery "wound up near Salzburg, Austria," Brig. Gen. Sam H. Long said.

"So they had an illustrious 13 and a half months of combat. We lost no less than 11 at fighting," he emphasized.

Long said that the men in the battery knew their jobs so well they performed them automatically. The French would give the battery a new position to move into, he said, and the unit would have the guns set up in one and one-half hours.

"Then we'd call up the French and tell them we were ready to fire," Long said. "The French would say they wouldn't be ready for another day. As a consequence, we got so many French decorations we had no place to put them."

The battery often amazed other units with the rapidity of hours, said Brig. Gen. Peet D. Raach of Geneva, recently retired commander of the 31st Division.

General Roach said the unit fired more than 120,000 rounds of ammunition weighing more than 12 million pounds.

FRESH MORTAR...

Of such things is a state or nation composed.
The first reunion of Battery D, 117th Field Artillery, and the 114th and 106th Ammunition Train, Alabama National Guard, in Elba last Saturday, served to cement the traditions which unite the people of a country.

For a state or nation is more than a geographical boundary. A state or nation, to be true and lasting, must be composed of a tradition-cemented people.

This reunion served as new cement to units an important segment of the great state of Alabama.

FROM OUR EARLY FILES...

21 YEARS AGO—

The Past Time Rook Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Sam Bean Young in her home. Lovely roses were used in decorations.

These present were served refreshments by the hostess, assisted by little Ella Elizabeth Wilkerson. Guests were Mrs. Morgan Windham, Mrs. Wayland Young, Mrs. Roger Chapman, of Ashford; Mrs. J. O. English, Mrs. J. W. English, Mrs. John Brunson, Mrs. Jim Whitman, Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, Mrs. Can Prescott, Miss Sallie Collier, Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. J. C. Dixon, Mrs. W. L. Walsh, Mrs. T. T. Rhodes, Mrs. Claud Smith, Mrs. Wesley Ham.

Mrs. W. L. Walsh was hostess at a bridge party in her home, when guests were members of her two table bridge club. Following a series of bridge progressions, the hostess served delicious salad plate with iced drink to the following: Mrs. John Wiley English, Mrs. Joe Frank Prescott, Mrs. George Collier, Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, Mrs. Gordon Mathes, Mrs. William Bullard, Mrs. Jim Whitman and Mrs. Price Ringo.

Mr. and Mrs. Arden Bradley were visitors in Montgomery. They were accompanied home by Miss Julie Bradley, who had been the guest of her cousin, Miss Virginia Sue Bradley, for two weeks.

The Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School held its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. W. L. Walsh with Mrs. George Lindsey serving as joint hostess when 15 members were present. Miss Evelyn Allred, president, presided over the business session which opened with a song. Mrs. F. F. Clark, secretary, made the roll call and read the minutes. Mrs. T. D. Kendrick gave the devotional followed by prayer. During the social hour, Mrs. Baxter Bryan directed a program of games.

The following members were present: Mrs. Wesley Ham, Miss Evelyn Allred, Mrs. Levy Foley, Mrs. Kay Farris, Mrs. Oswald Dowling, Mrs. J. A. Carney, Mrs. J. G. Clark, Miss Minnie Morrow, Miss Mable Brunson, Mrs. W. C. Braswell, Mrs. Baxter Bryan, Mrs. T. D. Kendrick, Mrs. W. L. Walsh, Mrs. George Lindsey, Mrs. P. F. Clark, and one visitor, Mrs. E. E. Purvis, Jr., of Rocky Mt., N. C.

CHEAP MEDICINES CAN BE EXPENSIVE

The greatest part of the cost of the average prescription drug is usually, it is many, less, and could be needed to produce maximum purity and for less by eliminating most of these costs.

Since the average person now spends less than $15 per year for prescriptions, it is wise to look for "bargains" you can depend on your pharmacist to supply the best at a fair price. Why take chances that may retard recovery.

CHEAP MEDICINES CAN BE EXPENSIVE
The greatest part of the cost of the average prescription drug is usually, it is many, less, and could be needed to produce maximum purity and for less by eliminating most of these costs.
Since the average person now spends less than $15 per year for prescriptions, it is wise to look for "bargains" you can depend on your pharmacist to supply the best at a fair price. Why take chances that may retard recovery.

Mrs. Sellers Goes To Convention Of B & PW In Chicago

Mrs. Myrtle Sellers

Mrs. Myrtle Sellers represented Elba Business and Professional Women at the annual convention of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, which convened July 23-27, in Chicago at the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

The week's program centered around the Convention, "Peace on the Future," National Federation President, Fannie Hardy, delivered the keynote address, which officially opened the Convention Sunday evening, July 23, at the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton.

The delegates heard "America's Goals in World Affairs" discussed by a panel of distinguished guests which included Pauline Fredrick, UN Correspondent, G. Mennen Williams, Asst. Secretary of State for African Affairs, and Dr. William B. Walsh, President of Project HOPE, on July 24.

The Convention closed with the Installation Banquet, which was held in the International Amphitheater in Chicago. Arthur H. Motley, immediate past President of the United States Chamber of Commerce addressed the group. The Blue Jackets, a singing group from the U. S. Naval Training Center, entertained the 2,876 delegates at this Banquet.

Miss Flay Lowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lowry of Jacksonville, Fla., was elected to the position of Miss America for 1961. She is a student summer missionary in Hawaii, has written the following letter to her parents:

"I am working for two weeks in the Alma Hana Baptist Church which overlooks the City of Honolulu from a magnificent location on the Island of Oahu. The Sunday School enrollment is 105 and it is a very outstanding church. The National Sword Drill winner for last year is from this church. I am working in the Primary Department of the Bible School.

The beauty of Hawaii is overwhelmingly. The thing that has impressed me here is the testimonies of the young people. Seems like almost all of them have parents who are Buddhists and the parents encourage their attending church but discourage their accepting Christ and being baptized.

Most of these young people have had to give up many things to maintain their Christianity. Since I have always taken my Christian home for granted, I am deeply touched by the sacrificial dedication of these young Christians.

"The hospitality has been grand. The reception at the airport was really an experience. Many of the Hawaiian greetings, leis and kisses. I wound up with eleven leis and I am sure as many of the others!

Please continue your prayers in our interest—Flay Lowry.

Army Duty Tour In Germany Nears End
Airman 1C and Mrs. Donald E. Lewis expect to return to the United States in November from Weisbaden, Germany, where Mr. Lewis has been stationed for the past three years.

Mrs. Lewis is the former Miss Mary Rita Parris, a 37 graduate of Kinship High, daughter of L. A. Parris of Elba and sister of Gus Parris of University of Ala. They have one son, Richard, aged two years, born in Germany. Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Lewis of Princeton, Ky. They have visited many historical sites during their stay in Europe.

the new 1961 Lilliston Peanut Combine Everyone who has agrees it's the best yet. Among the features causing the most comment are:
□ the new separator design that means cleaner peanuts
□ the new cylinder head that will get the nuts off the vines with much less power than ever before.
□ the new chain design—a 1961 Lilliston exclusive—that insures longer, trouble-free service.
□ the new draper system that actually adjusts automatically to maintain proper tension.
There's a lot more to talk about in this new Lilliston Combine. Come in as soon as you can so we can show you exactly what we mean.

Carol Marler Sets New Record of 15.5

A new track record was set last Saturday night at the El-

ba Micro Midget Race Track

as Carol Marler turned the track at a speed of 15.5 to succeed a previous record set by him of 15.8.

Marler, with his car, the Silver OO, has been a member of the club since it was organized and has won several events

including Duhan and Panama

City, as well as at the local track. With this speed, he had no opponent in the race, leaving the 1st place win to Earl

Stinson and 2nd place to the Brook and Parrish Special.

Tylon Brooks, secretary of the Elba club, announced that races will be held this Saturday night, August 12, to begin at 7:30, as a special appreciation race for fans who saw last

Saturday's race, with free admission.

WHO does not marvel at the flight of a bird? The soaring jet does not seem such a miracle. It cannot fly with the same grace and beauty and ease. Every bird must learn to fly. The mother bird pushes her fledgling out of the nest. The young bird falls helplessly until its wings discover the invisible support of the air.

If our lives are to rise beyond frail human nature, we too must learn to fly... on wings of faith. We must discover the invisible support of God's presence and power.

Come to Church next Sunday. You can find there the invisible support of God.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a cornerstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his soul. (2) For the sake of his children. (3) For the sake of his community. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

COFFEE COUNTY -SOIL NEWS-

By T. C. Seil and Billy Taylor

Cooperators of the Coffee County Soil Conservation District have shown their interest and desires in making their county community, and in particular their own farms an economical unit, providing the necessary income for farm families.

From July 1, last year, until June 30, this year, cooperators constructed over 100 miles of terrace lines. These were particularly type terraces designed for use by present day farm machinery. These terrace lines were completed with waterways and field borders. Twenty-two farm ponds were constructed with supervision from Soil Conservation personnel. These ponds were supervised from site selection to final completion which also included soils investigation, engineering, surveys and computations, trickle tube installation, etc.

Summaries of other practices will be made available at a later date.

Drainage ditches constructed on the O. V. and Carlton Rhodes farms this spring have been used to a good advantage during recent heavy rains. The drainage ditches drain grody ponds located in cultivated fields. Normally these ponds would have drained sufficient water to have drowned out crops planted in these and surrounding areas.

DESTROYED BY FIRE... BUT IT PAID OFF

The Treasury keeps a record of every U.S. Savings Bond

If your bonds are lost,
stolen or destroyed,
you get every cent back
with interest

Hard to find an investment that's as safe and sound as U.S. Savings Bonds. And now Series E Bonds earn more too—3 1/4% at maturity. But the most important thing they earn is peace.

Peace costs money. Money for industrial and military strength to help keep the peace. Money for science and education to help make peace lasting. Every Savings Bond you buy helps strengthen America's peace power. Are you buying as many as you might?
